Important

All pre-requisites namely inoculation and deworming have been performed as recommended by a veterinarian. Livestock are however susceptible to numerous illnesses and symptoms of diseases and or defects may develop after any given time. Although all possible precautions are taken, we accept no responsibility of the dog. This also includes losses that may occur long after the purchase date because of latent defects/incubating disease in the above mentioned animal.

If the dog falls ill within 4 (four) days from purchase date, you are entitled to return the dog alive. Also, if stated in writing by a veterinarian that the dog suffers from a genetic defect or any other illness/condition you may return this dog within the given 4 (four) days period.

After the 4 (four) days, this offer expires.

The breeder reserves the right to obtain a second opinion by a veterinarian of the breeder's choice.

If all the above-mentioned requirements are met, the breeder undertakes to refund the full purchase price providing that the dog is returned to the breeder alive within the given 4 (four) days.

Please be aware that we do not accept responsibility for any veterinary expenses or any other costs that you may have incurred within this 4(four) day period.

Furthermore it must be made clear that we will not exchange the dog for any other dog.
